Research Notes: Birth Place and Residence in Ireland

John's death certificate reveals that he was born in Bristol, England. However John must have lived for a substantial period in Charleville. Ireland. His son, John Patrick's 'Marriage Notice' in the Argus newspaper on the 11th July 1877 states that 'John Patrick Fitzgerald MD Resident Surgeon in the Melbourne Hospital is the son of John Fitzgerald JP of Charleville-villa, Gardiner formerly of Charleville, County Cork.' Also John snr's property in Gardiner was called 'Charleville' indicating a probable emotional connection to Charleville, Ireland. In addition Mary Fitzgerald, John's wife's property in Belair Street, Kensington was also named 'Charleville.'

Residential and Business Properties

1. 1852 and 153 23 Lonsdale Street-west

An 1852 'Notice' in the Argus of the death of John and Mary's daughter, Theresa Jane's revealed the Fitzgerald's then home address as '23 Lonsdale Street-west'. This address is also the address from which John's father, John, senior probably conducted his 'Veterinary Forge' business in 1853. Although in 1852 John Fitzgerald Snr's business address is listed as both number 21 Lonsdale street (Argus 9 Feb 1852) and in the Argus on the 4th Oct 1852 as number 23 Lonsdale street-west.

2. 1852 -57 Empire Hotel, Hotham, 40 Errol Street, North Melbourne

John Fitzgerald was the owner and proprietor, 'It was a brick house with 12 rooms, kitchen and stables. Having a good stable.

It is recorded that 'The Empire' became a famous hotelery. The Hotham Cricket Club held its meetings there, and Hotham Town's first bank (ES&A) began in one of its side rooms. Rates were 240 pounds'.

In 1857 John retired from the Hotel Business as the following newspaper advertisement reveals: 'TO LET, that well-known and spacious HOTEL, known as the Empire Hotel, Errol-street, North Melbourne, the proprietor retiring from business, written applications will be received until 8th Aug, 1857'. John Fitzgerald, Empire Hotel.

3. Business Properties

John either owned these properties or was an agent for the sale or rent of the properties.

John placed the following advertisement in 'The Argus':

a. May 1856, 'TO LET just finished, complete with plate-glass front, situate 21 Lonsdale-street West. Apply to Mr John Fitzgerald, Empire Hotel, Errol-street, North Melbourne'. (This was a two story house and shop). Note: John and family moved to 21 Lonsdale street in 1864. It was also John's 'Real Estate' business address.

b. 3rd June 1856, "To be SOLD or LET, a splendid farm of 160 acres: title Crown grant. Apply to Mr John Fitzgerald, Empire Hotel, North Melbourne.

4. 1857 Charleville Property, Gardiner

In 1857 John bought 30 acres of pasture and cultivated land and erected a 6 room house with stables on the corner of High Street and Charleville Rd (now Burke Rd), Gardiner. Source: " 'Walk into History 2' Malvern Historical Society Inc". 2005 pp 18 & 26.

The house's address today is '2 Hilary Gve, Glen Iris'. (Hilary Gve was created as part of the St Hilary Estate in 1923. Prior to that, the subdivision of the Charleville Estate in 1907, created the southern end of Scott Grove, whilst the northern end had been created in 1899).

Information from 'The Gardiner Rates Book' offers the following details regarding the property.

'No on Rate: 86 Occupier: John Fitzgerald. Description: Brick house, 7 rooms and outhouses. 15 acres. Number 105 - 106 High Street Road.

(Electoral District: Gardiner. Gross Annual Value: 135 pounds Rate: 6 pounds 11 shillings and 8 pence).

An advertisement in the Argus, 29 Mar 1858 reveals the Fitzgerald's employed home help.

'WANTED a MARRIED COUPLE the man as good practical gardiner, the wife as a general servant. No encumbrances. Apply John Fitzgerald, Charleville Villa, Gardiner.'

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN FITZGERALD, born abt. 1791

An Auction advertisement (The Argus, 9 Jan 1865) below provides additional details re the house and furnishings of 'Charleville-villa'. It reveals the house comprises a drawing room, dining room, parlour, three bedrooms, servant's room, dairy and bathroom.

The Auction Advertisement (The Argus, 31 Oct 1865) describes Charleville, villa residence, 'as a delightful suburban retreat, situated on one of the most charming hills in the vicinity of Gardiner, with 15 acres of land belonging thereto, having frontages to High Street and Charleville Road, the property of late Mr John Fitzgerald. The ground of this really beautiful property have been laid out and planted with choice flowers and shrubs with great taste and care. There is also over an acre planted with a varied assortment of fruit trees in full bearing. The house is suitable for a family residence, distance from town is easy and accessible by the railway'.

It seems that after 'Charleville' was sold by the Fitzgerald's, the new owners extended the house. In Mar 1872, the 'Charleville' property is described as having seven bedrooms, rather than three. There could have also been other additions.

The 'Auction Notice' in the 'The Argus', 20 Mar 1872 states:

'The house is substantially built of brick, with dressed bluestone foundations, verandah front and in a thorough state of repair, containing -

Drawing room with bay windows, dining room, seven bedrooms, schoolroom, store room, all in good s.?..closet ., well ventilated, and lofty; pantries, ?, and every convenience for a large family.

An underground dairy and cellar, substantially built in bluestone, perfectly dry and well ventilated.

A large kitchen, filled with patent range and hot water apparatus and servants room.

In the yard is a capital coach house, ? and harness room., three-stall stables; greenhouse, and other requisite outbuildings; a never failing supply of pure water in underground cemented tanks, with waterholes for ?.

The land is laid out (16 acres attached to the house) in green paddocks, orchard, flower and vegetable garden trenched and drained.'

4.1864 & 1865. 21 Lonsdale Street, West.

John Fitzgerald's advertisement (Argus 27 Oct 1864) states that he will open an office as a 'Land and Estate Agent' at the above address on Nov 1 1864. This was also his new residential address.

(The 'Sands and McDougall' Melbourne Streets Directory, 1865 states that 21 Lonsdale Street, West was between Elizabeth and Queen Street Melbourne. No 1 Lonsdale Street, West began on the north side of the street at Elizabeth Street).

It is sad to note that John died only three months after placing the above advertisement regarding the start of his

- Oral History:¹²
Tom Fitzgerald (born 1914) said that:

'My great uncle Henry O'Kane knew the 19C Fitzgerald Family. His sister, Anne O'Kane married into the Fitzgerald's in 1886 to my father's dad, Francis Fitzgerald. Uncle Henry, 'told me' (before he died in the early 1960's) how the Fitzgerald sons, who were then living at 168 Bellair Street Kensington liked the good life, entertaining many friends at home where Dad's father would sing and play the piano. Whilst on a Saturday afternoon the double gates leading into the street would open and some of the Fitzgerald sons seated in their vehicle, drawn by two spirited horses would canter merrily on their way to the Flemington races. It seemed they liked their grog as well.

My great uncle Henry O'Kane said that John (Fitzgerald b.1791), Margaret and son, John (Fitzgerald b.1817) came down from a cattle station in Queensland arriving in the town of Melbourne in the early 1840's'.

- Probate and Administration: Probate committed to Mary Fitzgerald. Series, 5 Record No: 117, 6 Apr 1865, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.¹³

John married Mary Kirby, daughter of John Kirby and Mary O'connor, on 28 Apr 1844 in , Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.¹⁴ Mary was born in 1823 in , Cork, Ireland, died on 14 Apr 1893 in Kensington, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia¹⁵ at age 70, and was buried on 16 Apr 1893 in Melbourne General Cemetery, Carlton, Victoria, Australia. The cause of her death was Bronchitis. They had 13 children: John William, Nicholas Francis, Patrick James, Edwin Thomas, Margaret, Theresa Jane, John Charles, John Patrick, Joseph Henry, Robert Michael, Francis Paul, Mary Ann and Edward James.

Event Notes

- Marriage Certificate: St Francis's Church Melbourne in the County of Bourke.
Witnesses: David O'Nial and Catherine Fitzgerald

Research Notes: John and Mary employed home help; an advertisement of Feb 1853 stated, 'Wanted: A female as a nurse and general servant to serve in as small family. Apply 23 Lonsdale Street-west. Also in 1864 when the family lived at Gardiner there was an advertisement for a 'Female servant and male, Gardiner' to work at the family property.

The street address of the Kensington property Mary lived in from about 1885 to 1893 was 168 Bellair Street, Kensington, Melbourne. Research has revealed that the property that exists today at 168 Bellair Street, the former Kensington 'Property Exchange'(shop/office/residence and stables) was built in 1891-1892. Thus the street house numbering system that applied in 1880's and 1890's is not the current numbering system adopted in Bellair street. The 'Melbourne Directory(Sands and McDougal 1902), enables Mary's house to be located at the northside corner of Bellair Street and Ormond Street, Kensington. The current address of this house is actually 260 Bellair Street.

- She immigrated to Australia on the 'Enmore' arriving Port Philip on 4 Oct 1841. ¹⁷ She probably sailed as a bounty immigrant, with her brother, Patrick.

The 'Enmore' was a 281 ton barque that departed Cork, Ireland on 9 June 1841 with 107 people on board. It left from Cobh (pronounced "Cove")

The captain was James Henry Ellis and the ship's doctor Robert Gordon Coombe. First Mate was James William Smith.

In Ireland, the Agent was expected to select only suitable people who came either as married or single, with ages under 40, and each had to have a Certificate from their home parish attesting their status.

All the passengers were brought out by the importer, James Cain, of Melbourne. The Importer was the one who collected the Bounty Immigrants for departure. Fares (bounty) were 19 pounds. This is the equivalent of about $3,436 in today's money. There was one death but no births on the voyage.

There were 18 families, 35 single females and 25 single males. Of the 96 adults 15 could read and write, 32 could read and 49 could neither read or write. 94 were Catholic and 9 were Protestant. One person, Mr Noukes Bartin, paid his own fare.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN FITZGERALD, born abt. 1791

Event Notes

- Birth Information: Born at his mother's residence, 30 Jun 1859, Charleville Villa, Gardiner.
- He worked as a Chemist about 1881 in Brunswick, Melbourne, Victoria, Australia.
- Address: Racecourse Road, Flemington.⁴⁹
- Inquest: 'Fitzgerald Francis Paul. Pl: Bruswick Yr: 1888. Cause: Suicide Poison, 27 Jun 1888, Melbourne.⁵⁰ The Inquest was reported in 'The Argus' (Melbourne), Vic. Friday 29 June 1888, page 5 'SUICIDE AT BRUNSWICK.

Mr. Candler, district coroner, held an inquest at Brunswick, on Wednesday, on the body of Francis Paul Fitzgerald, a chemist, whose death under peculiar circumstances was reported in the Argus of the previous day.

Annie Fitzgerald, wife of the deceased, deposed that he was quite well on Monday, She went to bed about 10 o'clock, and deceased slept on a sofa until 2 o'clock, when he also went to bed. He was very restless and could not sleep, and said he would take a sleeping draught. Between 4 and 5 o'clock he went into the shed and got something, which he drank. He told her to let him sleep till 10 o'clock, no matter who came. About a quarter to 8 o'clock in the morning she gave him a little tea. She went into the kitchen to attend to the children, and there heard the deceased moaning. She went to him, and found him insensible, and sent for Dr. Overend at once. The deceased expired about 20 minutes afterwards, Sho did not see the phial produced. The deceased had been drinking, but was not drunk when he got up to take the sleeping draught. He appeared to be quite right in his mind, and had not threatened to take his life.

Dr, E R Overend deposed that he saw the deceased about 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning. He was then in a dying condition, The witness made a post-mortem examination of the body and found the cause of death to be poisoning by prussic acid. After making the post-mortem he found the phial produced in the blankets at the foot of the bed. It was one of the ordinary bottles of prussic acid. Half a drachm to a drachm was a fatal dose. The length of time before death would occur after taking it would be from a few minutes to three or four hours. In his opinion, the deceased took the acid not very long before witness saw him. He knew the deceased, and had seen him lately, and noticed he was tremulous, in his opinion, deceased was suffering from the effects of drink, and was therefore not at sound mind.

The jury found that the deceased died from the poisonous effects of prussic acid, self-administered whilst labouring under temporary insanity.'
