REFERENCE.

I wish to apply for discharge, on the following grounds.

I have now procured a home in which to live and settle down.

There is plenty of land which I can grow from and start farming if I wish to.

I have had three years and six months continuous service in the Air Force.

At the present time my interests are in my home and really not in the Air Force.

And I wish to settle down in civilian life.

Dear Sir,

I have known 148215 A.C.1 Wilson M.L. for the past eight months, in which time, he has proved to me to be a lad of excellent character & a good worker.

I have offered him full use of my home & land, where he is now living.

As far as I know he intends cultivating the land in which I have given him full use of.
