Dear Gary,

RE: ACCESS TO CLIENT RECORDS (CHILDRENS HOMES)

I am writing in response to your enquiry for information regarding the time your father George Joseph Fitzgerald were accommodated at the Bayswater Boys Home Home

Enclosed is a copy of the documentation we have on file relating to his records. The Salvation Army holds minimal records relating to individual residents of these services.

You should be aware that the Department of Human Services in Victoria hold extensive records of children and young people that have been in care and, if you haven't already done so, you may wish to approach the department for further information.

Should further information become available, we will notify you.

In closing, should you require further information specific to this matter, please do not hesitate to contact the Territorial Social Programme Secretary on 03 8878 4778.

Yours sincerely,

Netty Horton
